Sophie Wittelsberger and Eric E. McLauchlin, Esq. named Harford Leadership Academy
20 in 20 Leaders
Slavie Chief Financial Officer and Board Member honored at annual banquet

Bel Air, Md. – Sophie Wittelsberger, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Slavie Federal Savings Bank and Eric McLauchlin, Board Member of Slavie Federal Savings Bank, were named to Harford Leadership Academy's 20 in 20 Leaders at the annual graduation and reunion banquet held Friday, June 11 at the Richlin Ballroom.

“This is quite an honor and we are thrilled to join Harford Leadership Academy in recognizing the commitment and talent of our own leaders,” said Philip E. Logan, President and Chairman of the Board, Slavie Federal Savings Bank. “Sophie and Eric truly personify the characteristics of great leaders. They each demonstrate professionalism and leadership quality, serving as great mentors to their colleagues and peers in their many roles of responsibility in the community.”

Celebrating 20 years of developing Harford County's leaders, the Harford Leadership Academy is a community development program, co-sponsored by Harford Community College and the Harford County Chamber of Commerce. With the mission to promote the development of existing and emerging community leaders, Harford Leadership Academy pairs future leaders with today's leaders, providing benefit to business and industry, education, government, civic organizations and the local community as a whole. Through the one-on-one development opportunities, Harford Leadership Academy works to create a network of leaders that are committed and involved with bettering the future of Harford County. Since its inception in 1990, more than 700 individuals have completed the program.

As a participant, Wittelsberger completed the program in 2006 and McLauchlin completed the program in 2002. Both were named a 20 in 20 Leader in honor of the 20th anniversary of Harford Leadership Academy. As a 20 in 20 Leader, Wittelsberger and McLauchlin will serve as representatives to the graduates that have benefitted from the program.
